2. Glassybaby

Glassybaby's are handmade, blown glass votives in the colors of the rainbow. Each Glassybaby is unique and these beautiful pieces have taken the Seattle Area by storm. They are beautiful collectibles with a purpose and each color tells a story. This fabulous event gives you the opportunity to experience the Glassybaby Studio and Hot Shop in action. Located in Seattle's Madrona Neighborhood, you will enjoy delicious appetizers, beverages, and will have time to shop for your very own Glassybaby, which is included in the price. Bring some friends and enjoy an afternoon in downtown Seattle.

8. Principal for the Day

What a day this will be! For starters, your student will be picked up at home by a beautiful cherry red Ferrari and chauffeured to school. Upon their arrival to school they will be warmly greeted by SMM's office staff and escorted to their home base for the day...the Principal's office! The day will begin with the announcement of our "Principal for the Day" over the loud speaker which will certainly be followed by great cheer. Fun will include visiting classes, helping to teach a PE lesson, card games with the Mr. Ramseyer, and SO MUCH more. Our "Principal" may invite a friend to join them for a Burgermaster lunch of their choice. And...at the end of the day, our "Principal" will pick a song for a 10-minute school-wide dance party. FUN, FUN, FUN!

Date: April 3rd or 17th
